

Winnetka Brownie Troop Brings Cheer to Mather Place of Wilmette Residents

December 14, 2009

Connie Capone (back right) and her daughter, Alexandra, visit with Leah Westerman, a resident of Mather Place of Wilmette and former neighbor of the Capones.

Irene Goldberg enjoyed speaking with the Brownies during their recent visit to spread holiday cheer.

More than a dozen members of Brownie Troop 41059 visited with residents of Mather Place of Wilmette on December 14, to entertain with holiday songs and good cheer. It was also an opportunity for the girls to work for a special activity badge, “Listening to the Past,” according to Connie Capone, one of the leaders of the troop of third-graders from Hubbard Woods School in Winnetka.

Connie and her daughter, Alexandra, also took time to visit with Leah Westerman, a resident at Mather Place of Wilmette, and former neighbor of the Capones. “The girls enjoyed entertaining the residents and bringing smiles to their faces,” said Connie.

About Mather Place of Wilmette

Mather Place of Wilmette is an independent living residence for older adults featuring 138 apartments with onsite dining, recreation, and wellness services. It’s a place that embraces and upholds the lifestyle and traditions that the North Shore is known for and is warmed by a true sense of neighborliness and camaraderie. To learn more about Mather Place of Wilmette, please call (847) 256.9300 or find your way to www.matherplaceofwilmette.com

Dan Brush, a resident of Mather Place of Wilmette, visits with one of the Brownies.

The Brownie Troop from Hubbard Woods School in Winnetka entertain the residents of Mather Place of Wilmette.